SCHEMATIC DESIGN

Tuesday, April 27, 2010
5:30—7:00 pm
GH2 | Architects
320 S. Boston Ave.
Suite 1600
Tulsa, Oklahoma

Last month, Carol Henderson presented Site Planning & Design and we are sincerely appreciative to Carol as she has allowed us to make her presentation available on the Chapter's website at www.AIAeok.org.

Next week, the series of monthly ARE 4.0 Study Sessions continues with Mentor/Protégé team members Chris Seat, AIA and Rob Jacobson, Assoc. AIA producing the Schematic Design study session at GH2.

Each of the 2010 ARE 4.0 Study Sessions is produced by a Mentor/Protégé team to assist the Chapter's architectural interns in their path toward licensure and to provide the structure and support for a successful experience. The monthly sessions are FREE to AIA Eastern Oklahoma members, $20 for non-members.

On May 25, Building Systems will be the last session before the summer break with sessions resuming on September 28 with Construction Documents and Services.

CALL FOR ENTRIES

We all know that the designers of Eastern Oklahoma's built environment are among its most talented, yet lesser known artists.

Beyond Bricks 2010 is the opportunity for Eastern Oklahoma architects, interns, landscape architects, interior designers, and architecture students to display a diverse variety of artistic methods, processes, and means of expression used by an artist to produce a work of art. This biennial event has featured photography, painting, sculpture, woodturning, jewelry and furniture created by artists representing the multi-design disciplines.

Beyond Bricks 2010 is a juried art exhibit that will be on display at Living Arts of Tulsa - opening to the public on Tuesday, June 29 through Thursday, July 8, 2010. On Thursday, July 8, 2010 an artist's reception will coincide with AIA Eastern Oklahoma's 2nd Thursday. ENTER TODAY!

Visit www.AIAeok.org to download the Call for Entries form and to register for next week's ARE Study Session!
