

AIA Eastern Oklahoma

A Chapter of the American Institute of Architects

AFFILIATE MEMBERSHIP

Our Affiliate Membership is open to individuals outside architectural practice yet involved in positions allied to the field, including engineers, landscape architects, design consultants, general and subcontractors, material suppliers, and other appropriate vendors. If you own or work for a building industry company that is interested in expanding its contacts within the architectural community, raising awareness for your firm's products or services, or networking one-on-one with architects, then AIA Eastern Oklahoma's Affiliate membership is the right choice for you and your firm.

Affiliate members enjoy, contribute to, and benefit from the resources of AIA Eastern Oklahoma. Affiliate membership is limited to the local chapter and does not include membership at the state, regional, or national components. Affiliate memberships run from January - December.

Affiliate members can:

- Attend professional development programs
- Join a committee in support of the profession and/or our community
- Join AIA Eastern Oklahoma members at chapter events and networking opportunities
- Receive free or discounted admission to chapter events or programs
- Receive a discount on the purchase of AIA Contract Documents
- Receive print and electronic publications
- Receive an Architect and Intern Architect membership roster in electronic format
- Receive a firm listing on chapter website
- Receive discount on multiple firm memberships
- Participate in a wide variety of chapter activities and events including Membership meetings and lectures and networking events
